v.	:
WILLIAM HORACE (“BILLY”) LONG	:	JUDGE MATTICE/LEE

RESPONSE TO GOVERNMENT’S MOTION TO CANCEL HEARING

Comes Defendant, William Horace “Billy” Long, by and through counsel and respectfully responds to the Government’s Motion to Cancel Hearing filed on August 12, 2008. (Doc. 41). The hearing that is the subject of the Government’s motion is scheduled for Friday, August 15, 2008 at 1:00 p.m. The Government’s reason for asking that the hearing be cancelled is that it contends that the hearing “is unnecessary.” The defendant respectfully disagrees and submits that the hearing is necessary.

The grounds for the defendant’s contention that a hearing is necessary are provided in his Motion for Subpoenas Duces Tecum (Doc. 26), Motion for Psychological Examination of Government Witness (Doc. 27), Memorandum in Support of Motion for Psychological Examination of Government Witness (Doc. 28), Reply to Government’s Response to Motion for Subpoena Duces Tecum by William H. Long (Doc. 42), and Reply to Government’s Response to Motion for Psychological Examination of Government Witness (Doc. 43).

Respectfully submitted,

SUMMERS & WYATT, P.C.
