

This is a tragic situation and one that Erlanger is taking very seriously. Our hearts go out to all the families involved. Let me assure you that we are reviewing all aspects of this situation and fully cooperating with all ongoing investigations. Once all the information about this incident is known, appropriate actions will be taken.”

--Jim Brexler, President and CEO
Erlanger Health System