

A Page 1 story in the Sunday, Sept. 20, Tennessee and North Georgia editions should have said drinking water tests in Southeast Tennessee during the past 18 months have resulted in 65 notices of violations at 24 of the region's 87 water systems, according to the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation's revised list of water system violations.

Community water systems in Southeast Tennessee with violations in the past 18 months

- * Benton Water System, Polk County: Two violations, disinfectant residual and total coliform rule
- * Big Creek Utility District, Grundy County: One violation, surface water treatment rule
- * Copper Basin Utility District, Polk County: Three violations, haloacetic acids, total organic carbons, trihalomethanes
- * Copperhill Water Department, Polk County: Two violations, haloacetic acids, trihalomethanes
- * Dayton Water Department, Rhea County, Six violations, haloacetic acids, trihalomethanes
- * Grandview Utility District, Rhea County: Three violations, haloacetic acids, trihalomethanes and consumer confidence reports
- * Griffith Creek Utility District, Marion County: Four violations, trihalomethanes
- * Hixson Utility District, Hamilton County: One violation, consumer confidence reports
- * Monteagle Public Utility Board, Grundy County: Four violations, interim surface water treatment rule, disinfectant residual and total coliform rule
- * Pikeville Water System, Bledsoe County: Three violations, interim surface water treatment rule, haloacetic acids and trihalomethanes
- * South Pittsburg Water System, Marion County: Three violations, haloacetic acids
- * Spring City Water System, Rhea County: Three violations, haloacetic acids, total organic carbons, trihalomethanes
- * Taft Youth Center, Bledsoe County: Three violations, surface water treatment rule, interim surface water treatment rule and volatile organics
- * Walden Ridge Utility District, Hamilton County: Two violations, disinfectant residual, total coliform rule
- * Whitwell Water Department, Marion County: Two violations, interim surface water treatment rule and haloacetic acids

Source: TDEC's revised violations list

